

THE JOURNAL OF ECONOMIC ASYMMETRIES

Editor-in-Chief

C. C. Paraskevopoulos, York University

Co-Editors

G.M. von Furstenberg
Indiana University

A.J. Kondonassis
Oklahoma University

P.E. Koveos
Syracuse University

A.G. Malliaris
Loyola U. Chicago

B. Spotton Visano
York University

International conference on
"REASSESSING THE CASE FOR FREE TRADE"
Fox School of Business and Management, Temple University.
Philadelphia, USA, January 5-6, 2005

CALL FOR PAPERS

The Athenian Policy Forum (APF) in partnership with Temple University is pleased to announce an international conference to be held January 5-6, 2005 (Wednesday, Thursday) on the theme "Reassessing the Case for Free Trade".

Professor Ingrid Rima is the organizer of the international conference that will be hosted by the Fox School of Business and Management of Temple University in Philadelphia.

Single papers relating to theoretical, empirical and policy issues are welcome until October 15, 2004 accompanied by an abstract not to exceed 200 words. Proposals for complete sessions of 3-4 papers, accompanied by discussants and a chair, are especially welcome.

Accordingly, an abstract should be sent before October 15, 2004 by e-mail to:
Professor Ingrid Rima [irima@aol.com]

Temple's downtown facility is in the heart of the city's commercial/restaurant district, with convention hotels and theaters nearby. Our dates immediately precede the ASSA conference, eliminating the need for additional hotel booking. This is a "no-fee" conference.

Selected conference papers may be published--under the imprint of the APF Press, after they undergo a rigorous (peer and publisher) refereeing process--in: either (a) a conference volume [www.apforum.org/apf_press.htm] or (b) The Journal of Economic Asymmetries (JEA) [www.apforum.org/JEA.htm].